

HOTEL INFORMATION

2026 Annual Meeting
Friday and Saturday, May 15-16, 2026

University of Chicago Law School

The hotels in Hyde Park tend to book up fast, so we recommend making your reservations early!

The closest hotel is The Study, which is directly adjacent to the Rubenstein Forum where the conference will be held. We have secured a very limited number of rooms at the discounted rate of $245 per night, which can be booked by using this link: ALEA Block. Alternatively, you can call 773-643-1600, press “1” for reservations, and ask for the ALEA Block. The block expires April 13, 2026, but will likely sell out sooner. If the block is sold out when you try, there may still be availability through The Study’s general booking channel (the regular rate is currently showing as $319 per night for our conference dates); we may also be able to add rooms to the block after it initially sells out, so please check back.

Nearby in Hyde Park:

Quadrangle Club (10 minute walk). The Quad Club currently has fifteen guestrooms available for our conference dates, all with private bathrooms, at the following rates (including taxes):

Single room with a queen bed: $289.00/night

Single room with a king bed: $299.00/night

2-room suite with a king bed: $314.00/night

Reserve by calling the front desk at 773-702-2550 (there is no online booking option).

The Sophy (1.2 miles away). Currently showing $399 per night for the conference dates (with discounted AAA and government rates)

Hyatt Place (1.4 miles away). Currently showing a standard rate of $346 per night for the conference dates / $319 for Hyatt members / various other discounted rates

There are, of course, numerous hotels in downtown Chicago as well. This list may be helpful as you plan: <https://visit.uchicago.edu/accommodations/>

We hope to see you in Chicago in May!
